Before using these sounds, you agree to be bound by the terms of this EULA. If you do not agree to the terms of this EULA, you will not be able to use any of our sound libraries or sound effects.

Anyone found breaching this agreement will be subject to criminal and civil penalties and liable for monetary damages. Please respect our hard work.

LICENSING INFORMATION

This license is granted to a single user only.

If you have more than one user who plans to use or has access to the sound effects you are licensing, it will require a multi-user license. Multi-user licensing is not complicated. Anyone who uses any or all the sound effects from a collection is considered a user. If you'll be consistently working on projects in conjunction with other users you will need a multi-user license for your facility. Each license fee is a onetime only purchase.

If you want to purchase a multi-user license or need more information about a multi-license, please contact us directly at contact@gamemasteraudio.com
